NHL, NHLPA AGREE ON OPENING DATE FOR FORMAL TRAINING CAMPS

NEW YORK/TORONTO (June 11, 2020) – The National Hockey League Players' Association (NHLPA) and the National Hockey League (NHL) announced today that formal training camps (Phase 3) for the 24 teams resuming play will open on Friday, July 10, provided that medical and safety conditions allow and the parties have reached an overall agreement on resuming play. The length of training camp and, therefore, the start date for formal resumption of play (Phase 4) will be determined at a future date.
