MORNING SKATE

Sunday, November 7, 2021

 #NHLSTATS

- ▶ Panthers extend point streak, hand Hurricanes first loss
- ▶ Red Wings erase multi-goal deficit, win in overtime
- ▶ Wild earn comeback win ahead of reunion with Parise

* The Panthers improved to 10-0-1 while simultaneously snapping the Hurricanes' season-opening winning streak at nine games.

* Moritz Seider scored the overtime winner to record the first tally of his NHL career and power the Red Wings to a multi-goal comeback victory.

* Minnesota, which welcomes former forward Zach Parise back to Xcel Energy Center Sunday, also earned a thrilling come-from-behind win. Overall, five of the 12 games Saturday featured a team overcoming a third-period deficit en route to victory.

PANTHERS SCORE EARLY AND OFTEN, HAND HURRICANES FIRST LOSS OF 2021-22

In a first-of-its-kind contest between two streaking clubs to start the season, Anthony Duclair (2-2—4) factored on three of Florida's four first-period goals as the Panthers (10-0-1, 21 points) became the first team to defeat the Hurricanes (9-1-0, 18 points) in 2021-22.

* Florida, one game shy of the longest season-opening point streak in franchise history (12 GP in 1996-97: 8-0-4), has recorded the NHL's longest such run since Chicago opened the 2012-13 campaign with a 21-0-3 mark.

* Duclair, who collected three of his four points on the power play, netted 1-2—3 in the opening frame and fell one point shy of the most by a Panthers player in a single period, behind Noel Acciari (3-1—4 on Dec. 20, 2019; 2nd period) and Olli Jokinen (2-2—4 on March 17, 2007; 3rd period).

* Spencer Knight turned aside 30 of 32 shots to foil Carolina's comeback attempt and boost his career regular-season record to 8-0-1 in nine appearances (2.43 GAA, .918 SV%).

BERTUZZI, RAYMOND, SEIDER HELP RED WINGS COMPLETE RALLY IN BUFFALO . . .

The trio of Tyler Bertuzzi (2-2—4), Lucas Raymond (0-3—3) and Moritz Seider (1-0—1) played pivotal roles in the Red Wings' multi-goal comeback win Saturday.

* Bertuzzi's two third-period goals in a span of 1:30 set the stage for Seider (1-9—10 in 12 GP) in overtime. He became the second player – and first defenseman – in franchise history to score his first career goal in overtime, joining Mud Bruneteau (Dec. 14, 1935).

Moritz Seider became the 20th rookie defenseman in NHL history to register 10 career points in 12 games or fewer. Only four active blueliners have achieved the feat faster: Will Butcher (9 GP w/ NJD), Zach Werenski (9 GP w/ CBJ), Cale Makar (11 GP w/ COL) and Michael Del Zotto (11 GP w/ NYR).

 #NHLSTATS

* Raymond, with his second outing of three-plus points this season (also 3-1—4 on Oct. 24 at CHI), became the fifth teenager to post a three-assist game with the Red Wings. He joined Steve Yzerman (4x; last: Feb. 17, 1985), Alex Delvecchio (0-3—3 on Oct. 16, 1952), Gordie Howe (0-4—4 on Dec. 17, 1947) and Harry Watson (0-3—3 on Dec. 12, 1942).

... WHILE WILD ALSO EARN THRILLING MULTI-GOAL COMEBACK WIN

Kirill Kaprizov (1-1—2) factored on two goals and Ryan Hartman scored a game-tying marker at 19:57 of the third period as Minnesota mounted a multi-goal comeback win for the second time this season (also Oct. 19 vs. WPG) – the most among all teams.

* Kaprizov recorded his 60th and 61st career regular-season points (29-32—61 in 65 GP). He required the fewest games to reach 60 points among players to debut with the Wild (all w/ MIN), shattering the previous mark set by Marian Gaborik (93 GP).

* Hartman's goal marked the latest game-tying tally of 2021-22 and just the second in the final 10 seconds of a contest. The other was scored by St. Louis' Torey Krug (59:51 on Nov. 3).
