PAIR OF GOLDEN STATE TEAMS EXTEND WIN STREAKS IN OVERTIME

The Kings and Ducks extended their win streaks to six and five games, respectively, despite each of the Golden State teams' opponents rallying with a third-period comeback to force overtime:

* Alex Iafallo scored six seconds into the third period and Jake Evans pulled the Canadiens even, before Adrian Kempe netted the winner in overtime to help the Kings earn their sixth consecutive victory – the longest active win streak in the NHL. Iafallo extended his point streak to seven games (5-5—10), marking the longest by a Kings player this season.

The image features the LA Kings logo in the top left corner, with the word "KINGS" in a smaller font to its right. Below the logo, a black text box contains the following text: "Alex Iafallo's goal six seconds into the third period marked the fastest goal to begin any period in Kings history, eclipsing their previous best of seven seconds set by Dave Williams on Feb. 14, 1987." At the bottom left of this text box is the NHL logo and the hashtag "#NHLSTATS". To the right of the text box is a photograph of Alex Iafallo, wearing a white Kings jersey with the number 19, celebrating with his teammates on the ice.

* Troy Terry (1-1—2) factored on two of Anaheim's three goals – including scoring the winner in overtime – and extended his point streak to 12 games as the Ducks earned their fifth consecutive win. The last time Anaheim recorded a longer run was in 2015-16, when they set the franchise record with 11 straight victories (from Feb. 13 to March 5, 2016).

Troy Terry's 12-game point streak is the longest by any player this season. Four players posted a point streak of at least 12 games in 2020-21: Nathan MacKinnon (15 GP), Dougie Hamilton (14 GP), Auston Matthews (13 GP) and Adam Fox (12 GP).
