HOCKEY HALL OF FAME SET TO INDUCT SIX NEW MEMBERS

The Hockey Hall of Fame will officially induct its six newest members Monday during a ceremony from Meridian Hall that will be broadcast at 8:00 p.m. ET on NHL Network and TSN5. The Class of 20/21, who had to wait a year for the ceremony due to COVID-19, includes five players and one builder.

* Ken Holland, inducted as a builder, won three Stanley Cups with the Red Wings as a general manager and is one of eight general managers in NHL history to guide his teams to over 1,000 regular-season wins. His current club, the Oilers, enter Monday as the top team in the Pacific Division.

* Marian Hossa (Stara Lubovna, Slovakia) is a three-time Stanley Cup champion and one of eight players born outside North America to score 500 career goals (525-609—1,134 in 1,309 GP). The others: Jaromir Jagr (766), Alex Ovechkin (742), Teemu Selanne (684), Jari Kurri (601), Mats Sundin (564), Stan Mikita (541) and Peter Bondra (503).

* Jarome Iginla (625-675—1,300 in 1,554 GP) is one of 20 players in NHL history to reach the 600-goal milestone and won multiple championships internationally including gold at the Winter Olympics (2002 & 2010), World Championship (1997) and the 2004 World Cup of Hockey. He was the longest-serving captain in Flames history (9 seasons from 2003-04 to 2012-13) and tops the franchise's all-time lists for regular-season goals (525), points (1,095) and games played (1,219).

Jarome Iginla is a two-time 50-goal scorer and recorded 30 or more goals in 12 different campaigns.

He won the Art Ross Trophy in 2001-02 and is a two-time winner of the Maurice "Rocket" Richard Trophy (2001-02 & 2003-04).

* Kevin Lowe (84-347—431 in 1,254 GP) won five Stanley Cups with the Oilers (1984, 1985, 1987, 1988 & 1990) and one with the Rangers (1994) – only nine players have won more Stanley Cups than Lowe (since 1917-18). He is the only player in Oilers history to appear in 1,000 regular-season games with the franchise, while his 309 assists and 383 points rank second among Edmonton defensemen behind longtime teammate Paul Coffey.

* Kim St-Pierre is the eighth female, and first goaltender, to be elected to the Hockey Hall of Fame. Her resume includes three gold medals with Canada at the Winter Olympics (2002, 2006 & 2010) and five at the World Championship (1999, 2000, 2001, 2004 & 2007). She received Best Goaltender honors in three of the aforementioned tournaments.

* Doug Wilson, who was awarded the Norris Trophy in 1981-82, ranks 15th in NHL history among defensemen with 827 career points (237-590—827 in 1,024 GP). He owns the most regular-season goals, assists and points by a defenseman in Blackhawks history and was also the first-ever captain in Sharks history – the franchise he has served as general manager since May 13, 2003.
