MAKAR DAZZLES UNITED CENTER WITH OT WINNER

After the Blackhawks and Avalanche traded leads in regulation on ESPN+ and TVAS, Cale Makar converted a highlight-reel solo effort in overtime to record his 11th game-winning goal since making his regular-season debut in 2019-20 – the most among all defensemen over that span and three more than the next closest (John Carlson: 8).

* Makar's game winner also marked his 14th goal of 2021-22. Only two defensemen in the NHL's modern era (since 1943-44) have scored more through their first 25 games of a season: Dave Ellett (15 in 1988-89 w/ WIN) and Bobby Orr (15 in 1974-75 & 1973-74 w/ BOS).

PANTHERS CAP HOMESTAND WITH ANOTHER HIGH-SCORING AFFAIR

Patric Hornqvist (2-0—2), Brandon Montour (0-3—3) and Carter Verhaeghe (0-2—2) all collected multiple points as the Panthers (22-7-4, 48 points) earned their fourth straight win and kept pace with the Lightning (22-8-5, 49 points) atop the NHL standings.

* After a nine-goal outburst on Dec. 30, 2021 against Tampa Bay and a 5-2 win on Jan. 1 versus Montreal, Florida scored 20 goals across a three-game span for the first time in franchise history (excluding shootout-deciding goals).

Since 1999-00, only one Ducks player has required fewer games than Terry to reach the 20-goal mark in a season: Corey Perry in 2013-14 (33 GP).

Jamie Drysdale (6-18-24) has the third-most points by a rookie defenseman through their first 60 career games with the Ducks behind only Francois Beauchemin (8-26-34) and Cam Fowler (7-22-29)
