DeANGELO'S 30 IN 30 GUIDES HURRICANES PAST RANGERS

After a seven-goal performance in their last outing, the Hurricanes (27-8-2, 56 points) scored six times Friday to outlast the Rangers (26-11-4, 56 points) and overtake first place in the Metropolitan Division standings. Carolina is currently averaging 3.57 goals per game, the highest single-season total in team history and the highest since the Whalers produced 3.74 goals per game in 1988-89.

* Tony DeAngelo (1-2—3), who also had 0-3—3 on Jan. 18 at Boston, factored on three of six goals to boost his 2021-22 totals to 7-24—31 (30 GP) and became the first defenseman in Hurricanes/Whalers history to record 30 points through his first 30 contests with the franchise. He also became the first defenseman in franchise history to record consecutive three-point games.

MATTHEWS CLOSING IN ON ANOTHER FRANCHISE MARK

After falling short of tying the longest road goal streak in NHL history, Auston Matthews and the Maple Leafs (24-10-3, 51 points) take to the ice against the Islanders (14-13-6, 34 points) at UBS Arena. The Toronto forward has collected 12-4—16 in his last 11 contests as the visitor and can match franchise icon Doug Gilmour (12 GP in 1993-94) for the longest road point streak in Maple Leafs history should he find the score sheet once again.
