Q & A

Describe a moment where you proudly thought to yourself, "I can't believe this is my job!"

I had a moment recently when the Calgary Flames Foundation and I ran our own all-female hockey school. At the end of the camp, seeing how much they were enjoying being on the ice and their passion for the game, made me realize how much I love being around the rink. I want to make a positive impact in the game of hockey and the lives of aspiring athletes, which is why I love my role with the Calgary Flames. It allows me to be involved with different grassroot initiatives that the Flames Foundation supports throughout Alberta.
