* Connor McDavid (1-0—1) sparked an Oilers third-period comeback by erasing a 1-0 deficit and Darnell Nurse scored the winner 1:20 into overtime to help Edmonton match its franchise record for longest winning streak (also 9 GP in 2022-23 & 2000-01). Nurse (5) moved into a tie for the fourth-most overtime goals in Oilers history, a list topped by McDavid, who was skating in his final game before turning 27 on Jan. 13.

CANUCKS, ISLANDERS PICK UP OT WINS COURTESY OF FOUR-POINT PERFORMANCES

Despite taking place nearly 400 miles apart, Vancouver and New York's overtime victories mirrored each other as Elias Pettersson (2-2—4) and Mathew Barzal (1-3—4) both posted four-point nights capped by game-winning tallies, to help the Canucks and Islanders overcome multi-goal performances from Sidney Crosby and Auston Matthews, respectively.

PETTERSSON NETS ANOTHER GWG

Elias Pettersson tied Daniel Alfredsson (4 GP in 2006-07) for the second-longest game-winning goal streak in NHL history, behind only Newsy Lalonde (5 GP in 1920-21).

^ Of note: Clark Gillies also did so in the postseason with the Islanders in 1976-77.

* Barzal scored his fifth career overtime goal and tied Thomas Hickey and Anthony Beauvillier for fifth place on the Islanders' all-time list. He also added three assists for his third four-point game of the season, tied with Nikita Kucherov, Connor McDavid, Mitchell Marner and Pettersson for the most among all players.

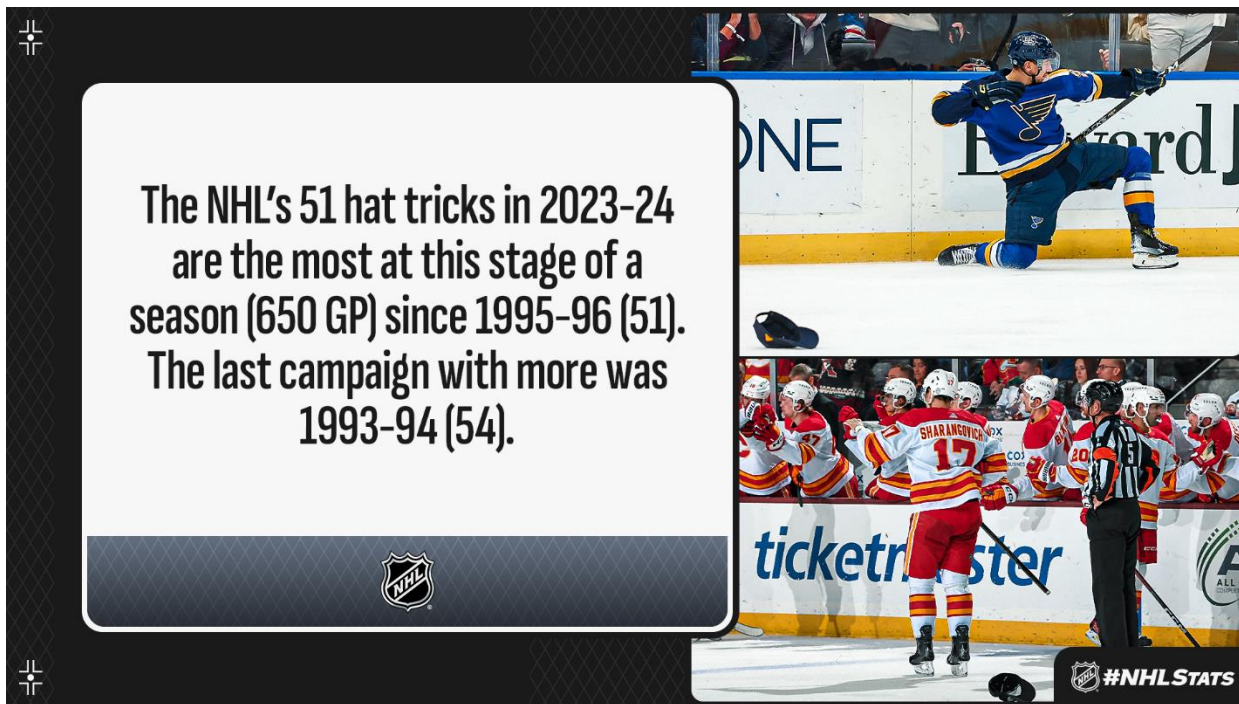

* Barzal wasn't the only Islanders player with a four-point performance Thursday – Noah Dobson factored on all four of his team's goals to record his first career four-assist game and improved his season totals to 6-36—42 (41 GP). Dobson joined Denis Potvin (9x; fewest: 28 GP in 1979-80) as the second defenseman in Islanders history to reach the 40-point mark in 41 or fewer games.

* Kyrrou's three-goal performance marked the 50th hat trick in the NHL this season, which helped AstraZeneca officially reach the halfway mark of its $500,000 donation goal – a campaign that has watched the organization donate \$5,000 to the Hockey Fights Cancer Fund of the V Foundation for every hat trick in 2023-24.
