TEAM KING

Coach: Cassie Campbell-Pascall, PWHL Special Advisor
Named in honor of Billie Jean King

F 26 Kendall Coyne Schofield, PWHL Minnesota (2nd)

* A three-time Olympic medalist (1 gold, 2 silver) and nine-time World Championship medalist (6 gold, 3 silver), Coyne Schofield won the Patty Kazmaier Award during her senior year at Northeastern (2016). To date, she still holds the record from most career goals (141) in Huskies history.

* In 2019, Coyne Schofield took the place of injured Avalanche forward Nathan MacKinnon in the Fastest Skater event at NHL All-Star Skills in St. Louis, clocking a lap time of 14.346 seconds – less than one second shy of the winning time by Oilers forward Connor McDavid (13.378). In doing so she became the first female to compete in an NHL All-Star skills event.

* Coyne Schofield also played in the inaugural Elite Women's 3-on-3 game at NHL All-Star in 2020.

F 21 Hilary Knight, PWHL Boston (2nd)

* Four-time Olympic medalist (1 Gold, 3 Silver) and 13-time World Championship medalists (9 Gold, 4 Silver) with Team USA. Knight's four Olympic medals are tied with Jenny Potter, Angela Ruggiero and Julie Chu for the most by a U.S women's hockey player.

* First recipient of the 2023 IIHF Female Player of the Year award. Knight captained the 2023 USA Women's World Championship team to victory, marking her ninth gold medal at the event which tied Danielle Goyette (CAN) for the most in a career.

* One of three players signed in free agency by Boston, Knight was announced as captain of the club on Jan. 2 by former Bruins captain Patrice Bergeron.

F 11 Alina Müller, PWHL Boston (1st)

* Müller is a three-time Olympian (2014, 2018 & 2022) and seven-time World Championship participant with Team Switzerland. In 2014, she became the youngest ice hockey player to win an Olympic medal when she helped her country earn bronze at the age of 15.

* Müller finished among the top 3 finalists for the Patty Kazmaier Award twice (2020 & 2023) and was named among the top 10 finalists for the award five times (2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 & 2023).

* Boston's first pick (third overall) in the inaugural PWHL Draft.

F 12 Kelly Pannek, PWHL Minnesota (1st)

* Pannek is a two-time Olympic medalist (1 gold, 1 silver) and five-time World Championship medalist (3 gold, 2 silver) with the United States.

* Born in Plymouth, Minn., Pannek won back-to-back NCAA national championships with the Minnesota Golden Gophers (2015 & 2016) and signed with her home-state team on Sept. 6, 2023..

* During her junior season with the Golden Gophers, Pannek ranked first in the nation in assists (43) and second in points (19-43—62 in 39 GP).

F 29 Marie-Philip Poulin, PWHL Montreal (2nd)

* Poulin is a four-time Olympic medalist (3 gold, 1 silver) and 11-time World Championship medalist (3 gold, 7 silver, 1 bronze).

* Poulin also known as 'Captain Clutch' is the only player (men's or women's hockey) to score in four Olympic gold medal games. Her four tallies include two game-winners one of which took place in overtime (Sochi, 2014).

* In 2022, Poulin received the Northern Star Award as Canada's Athlete of the Year and the Bobbie Resenfeld Award as the top female athlete.

* Poulin tallied the second hat trick in PWHL history on Jan. 10 at New York, four days after PWHL Minnesota forward Grace Zumwinkle netted the first (against Montreal).

F 40 Blayre Turnbull, PWHL Toronto (2nd)

* Turnbull is a two-time Olympic medalist (1 gold, 1 silver) and six-time World Championship medalist (2 gold, 3 silver, 1 bronze).

* One of three players signed in free agency by Toronto and was named the clubs first captain on Dec. 30th.

* She played four seasons with the University of Wisconsin Badgers where she served as captain during her senior season and tied for second on the club in goals (15).

D 15 Savannah Harmon, PWHL Ottawa (1st)

* Harmon became Ottawa's first-ever drafted player after being selected in the First Round (fifth overall) during the inaugural PWHL Draft.

* A Team USA Olympic medalist (Silver) and three-time World Championship medalist (1 Gold, 2 Silver), Harmon led Team USA defenders in goals (2), assists (5) and points (7) during her 2022 Olympic debut.

* Named a Patty Kazmaier Award Finalist during the 2017-18 season, Harmon helped Clarkson University claim back-to-back NCAA National Championships (2017 & 2018).

D 5 Megan Keller, PWHL Boston (1st)

* Keller was named an alternate captain on Boston's first leadership squad after the team signed her as one of its three free agency signings.

* A decorated player on the national stage, Keller is a two-time Olympic medalist (1 Gold, 1 Silver), seven-time World Championship medalist (5 Gold, 2 Silver) and four-time Four Nations Cup medalist (3 Gold, 1 Silver) with Team USA.

* Keller was named a Patty Kazmaier finalist in three out of her four years with Boston College, making her just the second defender in history to be a finalist three times.

D 17 Ella Shelton, PWHL New York (1st)

* After becoming New York's first-ever pick in the PWHL Draft (fourth overall), Shelton went on to score the first goal in PWHL history in a 4-0 W over Toronto on Jan.1, 2024.

* A Team Canada Olympic medalist (Gold) and three-time World Championship medalist (2 Gold, 1 Silver), Shelton collected 0-3—3 in 7 GP in her 2022 Olympic tournament debut.

* Shelton attended Clarkson University where she helped the Golden Knights win National titles alongside fellow All-Star, Savannah Harmon, in 2017 & 2018.

D 2 Lee Stecklein, PWHL Minnesota (2nd)

* Stecklein became one of the first players to join the Minnesota roster when the team signed her during the free agency period.

* Stecklein is a three-time Olympic medalist (1 Gold, 2 Silver) and eight-time World Championship medalist (6 Gold, 2 Silver) with Team USA. During the 2021 World Championship, Stecklein was named an All-Star and Best Defender of the tournament after collecting the most assists (5) and points (7) among blueliners.

* Stecklein won the National Championship in three of her four years with Minnesota-Duluth (2013, 2015 & 2016) and captained the team in her final two seasons with the school.
