Boeser, Lindholm each score twice to lift Canucks to 2-1 series lead

Barkov caps off multi-goal comeback win as Panthers go up 3-1

Hurricanes look to stave off elimination again; Avalanche aim to even their series

* Brock Boeser and Elias Lindholm both scored twice to lift the Canucks to the second comeback win of Sunday night and the 28th of the 2024 Stanley Cup Playoffs – a total that is the fourth highest at this stage of a postseason (58 GP) in NHL history.

* Aleksander Barkov recorded his third game-winning goal of the 2024 Stanley Cup Playoffs to help the Panthers complete their fifth-ever multi-goal comeback win in the postseason and move within one victory of clinching a berth to the Conference Finals.

* Monday will feature the Hurricanes looking for their second straight win as they aim to force a Game 6, while the Avalanche can even their series on home ice.

CANUCKS EARN SECOND COMEBACK WIN OF SERIES TO TAKE 2-1 LEAD

Brock Boeser (2-1—3) and Elias Lindholm (2-0—2) both scored two goals while rookie netminder Arturs Silovs posted a 42-save performance to propel the Canucks to their fourth road win of the postseason – the most among all teams – as Vancouver took a 2-1 series lead. The Second Round series between the Canucks and Oilers has seen the winning team overcome a deficit to win in each of the first three games.

* The Canucks recorded their fourth comeback win of the 2024 Stanley Cup Playoffs, which is tied with the Avalanche (4) and Rangers (4) for the most among all teams. They established the fourth instance in franchise history of recording four-plus come-from-behind victories in a postseason (also 6 in 2011 & 1982 & 4 in 1994).
