MACKINNON SHINES WITH FIVE-ASSIST NIGHT, NOW LEADS SCORING RACE

Nathan MacKinnon began the night by collecting an assist to extend his season-opening point streak to 13 games – a mark Cale Makar (0-2—2) also reached Tuesday – before adding four more helpers to tie the franchise record for assists in a game. MacKinnon, who became the first player this season with a five-assist outing, leapfrogged into first in the scoring race with 6-19—25.

* MacKinnon recorded his eighth career five-point game and tied Evgeni Malkin for the second most among active players, behind only Connor McDavid (11).

* MacKinnon and Makar became the third set of teammates in NHL history with simultaneous season-opening point streaks of at least 13 games. The others: Bobby Orr and Phil Esposito (15 GP w/ BOS in 1973-74) as well as Dimitri Kvartalnov and Joe Juneau (14 GP w/ BOS in 1992-93).

HURRICANES OUTLAST FLYERS TO CAPTURE SEVENTH STRAIGHT WIN

Travis Konency (2-2—4) helped the Flyers erase 3-1 and 4-3 deficits through 49:17 of play, but Martin Necas (1-1—2) continued his string of success and scored the game-winning goal with 31 seconds remaining in regulation to guide the Hurricanes (9-2-0, 18 points) to their seventh straight win.

NECAS FACTORS ON 6TH GAME-WINNING GOAL

Martin Necas (3-3—6) has factored on six game-winning goals this season, tied with Kyle Connor (3-3—6) and Matt Boldy (3-3—6) for the most among all players.

* Necas boosted his season totals to 7-13—20 (11 GP) and joined John Anderson (10 GP in 1985-86) and Eric Staal (11 GP in 2005-06) as the only players in Hurricanes/Whalers history to reach the mark in 11 games or fewer.

* Necas joined Pius Sutter (59:34 on Nov. 2 w/ VAN) and Nikita Kucherov (59:05 on Oct. 17 w/ TBL) as the NHL's third player to score a go-ahead goal in the final minute of regulation this season. Only four players in Hurricanes team history have netted a later tally: Ray Whitney (59:59 on Oct. 13, 2006), Justin Faulk (59:43 on Dec. 6, 2015), Sebastian Aho (59:41 on Feb. 22, 2024) and Jesper Fast (59:31 on April 1, 2021).

QUARTET OF CANADIAN CLUBS EARN VICTORIES TUESDAY

The Flames (7-5-1, 15 points), Jets (12-1-0, 24 points), Maple Leafs (7-5-2, 16 points) and Canucks (6-2-3, 15 points) each skated to victories during Tuesday's 11-game slate, including two by virtue of shutouts.

* With the Flames trailing by one with less than three minutes in regulation, Matt Coronato scored to level the game and send it to overtime where he needed just seven seconds to complete Calgary's third third-period comeback win of the season – the most among all teams. Coronato fell just one second shy of the mark for the fastest overtime goal in NHL history
