- Pastrnak, Bruins clip Canadiens in Boston's Centennial Game at TD Garden
- DeBrusk completes hat trick with overtime winner as Vancouver defeats Detroit
- Week ahead has Prime Monday Night Hockey game, unveiling of full 4 Nations Face-Off rosters

* The Bruins' Centennial Game coincided with the 700th career contest for David Pastrnak, who wore a retro Cooper helmet in warm-up and pocketed one of Boston's six goals to join a rare list populated by several franchise legends that were in attendance for the festivities Sunday.

* Jake DeBrusk, who was a member of the Bruins organization for nine of their 100 years, capped his second career hat trick with the overtime winner in a game which saw Canucks teammates Kevin Lankinen and Quinn Hughes make NHL and franchise history, respectively.

* Connor Bedard is set to contest his third career game against Auston Matthews when the Blackhawks battle the Maple Leafs during the latest edition of Prime Monday Night Hockey on Prime Video Canada. The rest of the week is set to feature several more national telecasts as well as the unveiling of full 4 Nations Face-Off rosters.

PASTRNAK, BRUINS CLIP CANADIENS AGAIN

Boston improved to 15-0-1 in its last 16 games against Montreal dating to Nov. 26, 2019, extending the longest point streak by either team in the 100-year history of the rivalry.

#NHLSTATS

* Pastrnak (357-393—750 in 700 GP) became the fourth player in franchise history with 750 points through 700 games \(or fewer\) following Phil Esposito, Bobby Orr and Rick Middleton. Esposito, Orr and Middleton were all in attendance Sunday, as was hockey pioneer Willie O'Ree who could be seen in the Bruins' epic "Soaring Through History" drone film shared by the team on social media before facing the Canadiens.

* Former Boston forward Johnny Bucyk and Montreal goaltender Ken Dryden were part of the ceremonial puck drop conducted by youth hockey players from Massachusetts and Quebec. Bucyk (9-9—18 in 22 GP) buried nine of his franchise-record 545 goals on Dryden, who went 12-5-5 in those games with a 2.91 goals-against average and .910 save percentage.

DEBRUSK, LANKINEN, HUGHES SHINE IN CANUCKS VICTORY

In a back-and-forth game against the Red Wings that included four game-tying goals (tied for the most in a game this season), Jake DeBrusk (3-1—4) capped his first hat trick as a member of the Canucks with an overtime winner to help Vancouver improve to 10-2-0 as visitors this season, marking the fewest games needed to 10 road wins in franchise history.

* DeBrusk, who became the eighth player in Canucks history to record a regular-season hat trick that included an overtime winner, improved his season totals to 10-9—19 in 23 GP – the only offseason additions with a higher goal total include Stefan Noesen (13 w/ NJD), Jack Roslovic (12 w/ CAR) and Adam Gaudette (12 w/ OTT). With every hat trick this season, AstraZeneca will donate $3,000 to the Hockey Fights Cancer Fund of the V Foundation up to $300,000.

* Kevin Lankinen stopped 27 of 31 shots to become the first goaltender in NHL history to earn wins in each of his first 10 road appearances in a season. Of note, Ilya Samsonov went 10-0-0 through his first 10 road decisions during the 2019-20 campaign (11 GP).

* Quinn Hughes (0-3—3) recorded three assists, including a helper on the overtime winner, to surpass Alexander Edler (310) for the most assists by a defenseman in franchise history – Hughes required 537 fewer games to reach the mark. Hughes already owned Canucks franchise records for assists and points in a season by a defenseman.
