Oilers even series with three-goal comeback win

Draisaitl sets NHL record with fourth overtime goal of 2025 playoffs

* The 2025 Stanley Cup Final continues to deliver stars, excitement and overtime after a Game 4 that saw the Oilers erase a three-goal deficit, the Panthers score the second-latest game-tying goal in a Final and Leon Draisaitl set an NHL record with his fourth overtime goal of the postseason all in front of a crowd of raucous fans and celebrities that included Taylor Swift and Travis Kelce.

* The Oilers and Panthers combined for nine goals, propelling the 2025 Stanley Cup Final into the top four in NHL history for most goals through the first four games of a Final. Game 5 is set for Saturday in Edmonton at 8 p.m. ET (TNT, Sportsnet, TVA Sports).

* Three more NHL Awards recipients were announced Thursday with Jets goaltender Connor Hellebuyck taking home the Hart Trophy and Vezina Trophy and Kings forward Anze Kopitar earning his third career Lady Byng Trophy.

* The Oilers became the seventh team in Stanley Cup Final history to win a game in which they trailed by three or more goals, and just the second team to accomplish the feat on the road joining the Canadiens 106 years ago (Game 5 of 1919 SCF).

*The 1919 Stanley Cup Final was suspended before a team had won

After the morning skate prior to Thursday's game, Leon Draisaitl talked about how his team has always had the ability to bounce back from bad performances. Then in Game 4, Draisaitl (1-2—3) led the Oilers to a three-goal comeback victory with his record-setting fourth overtime goal of the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs. Draisaitl had never scored a playoff overtime goal entering the 2025 postseason.

* Not only did Draisaitl set the aforementioned NHL record for most overtime goals in a single playoff year (4), he established a new franchise record for the most all-time in the postseason in Oilers history.

* Draisaitl became the fifth player in NHL history to score multiple overtime goals in a Stanley Cup Final (also Game 1), joining Maurice Richard (3), Don Raleigh (2), Jacques Lemaire (2) and John LeClair (2). Only Raleigh in 1950 (Game 4 & 5 w/ NYR) and LeClair in 1993 (Game 3 & 4 w/ MTL) did so in the same series.

* Draisaitl improved his point total this postseason to 11-21—32 (20 GP) and became the fifth player in NHL history to record 30 points in consecutive postseasons. He joined teammate Connor McDavid (2024-2025), Nikita Kucherov (2020-2021), Mario Lemieux (1991-1992) and Wayne Gretzky (1987-1988 & 1983-1985).

* The 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs marks the third time in his career Draisaitl has had a 30-point postseason. The only other players to reach the benchmark in three or more postseasons: Gretzky (6x), McDavid (3x) and Mark Messier (3x).

60 IS NOT ENOUGH IN THE 2025 FINAL

The thrills kept coming in Game 4 with the 100th overtime game in Stanley Cup Final history and the third through the first four games of this series.

* Just four other Stanley Cup Final series have featured overtime in three of the first four games: Blackhawks-Bruins in 2013 (Game 1, 2 & 4), Canadiens-Kings in 1993 (Game 2, 3 & 4), Maple Leafs-Canadiens in 1951 (Game 1, 2, 3 & 4) and Canadiens-Bruins in 1946 (Game 1, 2 & 4).

* This year marks the eighth Stanley Cup Final – and fourth in the expansion era (since 1967-68) – to have three or more games require overtime. The others: 2014 (3), 2013 (3), 1993 (3), 1951 (5), 1950 (3), 1946 (3) and 1940 (3).

* Calvin Pickard entered the game at the start of the second period and stopped 22 of the 23 shots he faced to become the sixth goaltender in NHL history to win a Stanley Cup Final game in relief. Pickard improved his record to 7-0 in the 2025 Stanley Cup Playoffs, becoming the fourth goaltender in Oilers history to earn a win in seven straight postseason decisions, joining Grant Fuhr (9-0 in 1985 & 8-0 in 1988), Bill Ranford (8-0 in 1990) and Dwayne Roloson (7-0 in 2006).

* For the second consecutive season and third time overall, Hellebuyck was presented the Vezina Trophy, awarded “to the goaltender adjudged to be the best at his position,” as selected by NHL general managers. He is the fourth goaltender to win the Vezina at least three times under its current format (since 1981-82), following Dominik Hasek (6x), Martin Brodeur (4x) and Patrick Roy (3x).

* Hellebuyck was also named the recipient of the Hart Memorial Trophy, presented “to the player adjudged to be the most valuable to his team,” as selected by the Professional Hockey Writers Association. He is the fourth netminder in the expansion era (since 1967-68) to win the award, following Hasek (1996-97 & 1997-98 w/ BUF), Jose Theodore (2001-02 w/ MTL) and Carey Price (2014-15 w/ MTL).

* Hellebuyck was enjoying a quiet morning fishing. When he returned home, his family, parents and close friends were waiting at the dock to surprise him with the trophy.

* Kings center Kopitar was the 2024-25 recipient of the Lady Byng Memorial Trophy, awarded “to the player adjudged to have exhibited the best type of sportsmanship and gentlemanly conduct combined with a high standard of playing ability.” The Kings’ captain – who is spending his offseason in his native Slovenia – learned the news from his children, who handed him special drawings of the Lady Byng before giving him the replica trophy.

* The 37-year-old Kopitar, who previously received the award in 2015-16 and 2022-23, is the third player this century with at least three Lady Byng Trophy wins. The others: Pavel Datsyuk (4x) and Martin St. Louis (3x).
